We for luncheon. The plan is looking green & the weather is not too cold, I am glad to say.
I spent yesterday evening & seeing Mrs Megann & Campbells. Anne told him that you would be coming up about the 9th May.
This morning about 1 the vicar came & worked my horse - Lady Wilton wrote me a nice letter inviting to the garden party this afternoon to which I went. It was as usual very enjoyable like all Wilton days Shaws are tennis, golf right dancing tame all available. Now, I have to tell you about a very important thing.
Lord W. told me that he was going off on the 17th May. with Lady W. to FERNHILL PALACE.

NILGIRIS.

private Capacity as a friend about the Mysore questions viz. Subsidy & Surplus Revenues if Sir can do so desired Him To do. It seems to me as if the very Heavens had sent us this opportunity & an agent to help us in our present difficulties Sir would Seriously & Earnestly Sir for a day even to see Him & with Sir good. bye. Speed Sir. If Mankal gets to know about this he will press Sir to Come up.

Excuse this Scrawl, Dam writing with a Pen as I am just back from my party & am going out to dinner again.

Sir's affectionate
K Sheshadrigar

5

be a Man and pilot if You did it take full advantage of it by Coming up here even for a Couple of days before they leave & Speak to Him personally & apprised Him fully with the facts of the Case. It will go a long way Dan Sure it will not be easy for any to find a better advocate for you Cause than Lord W.
Dunderdale - Say more, Sir Dane only get which fit for a moment to be Convinced of the grand opportunity before you.
Ditchem W. Spoke to Dick also about this & told Him to write Mr on about it at once. This morning.
Hope you will think it over.